SCHOOL LIFE

Memories of one's Alma Mater live on for a life time.

Every school has its traditions but each school's traditions make it uniquely distinct from all others.

Traditions play an important role in school life—

honored by students . . .

respected by teachers . . .

acknowledged by the community . . .

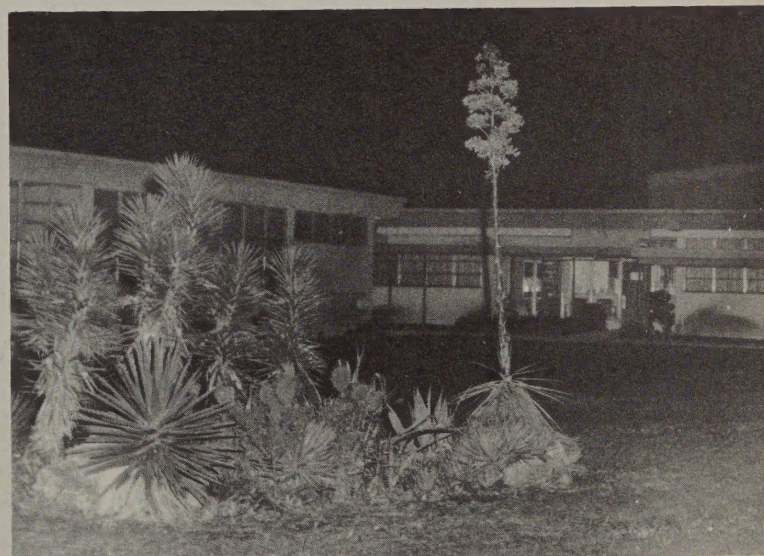

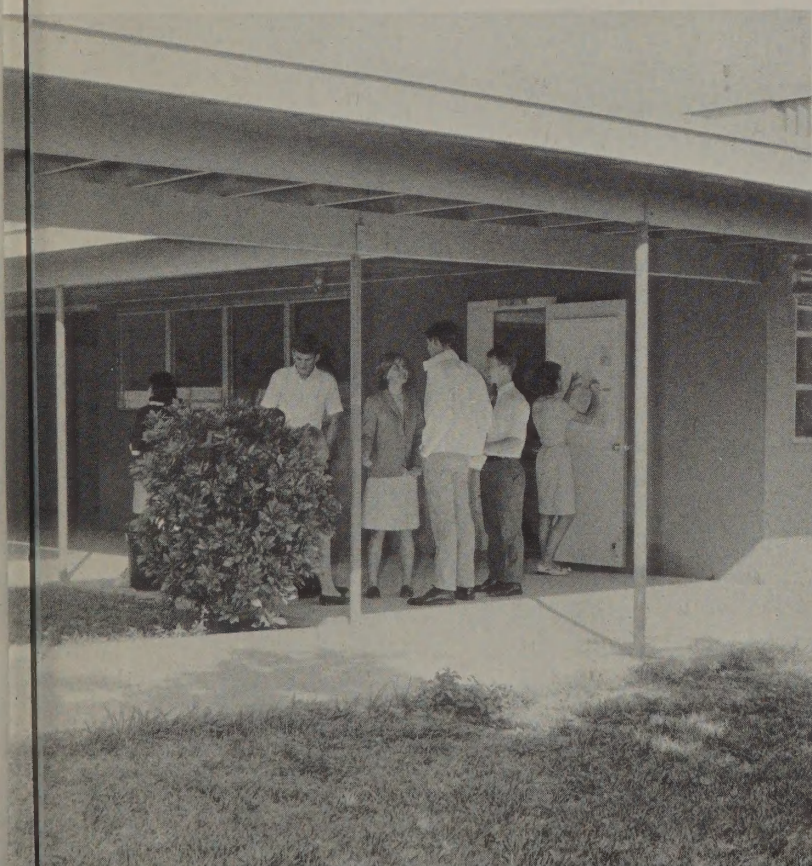

and revered in memory by all.

This year's innovations may become next year's custom and the future's sacred tradition.

The poignant refrain of
"Oh Pompano, hats off to you,
of valiant colors
gold and blue" will always strike a nostalgic note in the hearts of Pompano students——old and new.

Low note accents the beat.
Cinderella and her magic cat charm their audiences.
Heads bowed in silent prayer before the big game.
Success, after much practice—
dunking the ball.
Newest sport at PBSHS; skill and strength count.

Faculty vs students—results is liniment and asprin!
 Trampoline—keeping in trim for the swim team.
 A familiar figure around school,
 Our indispensable photographer Mr. Otto Buschke.
 A game would lose its sparkle without ardent fans.
 The Snowball Winter Wonderland—a long awaited event.

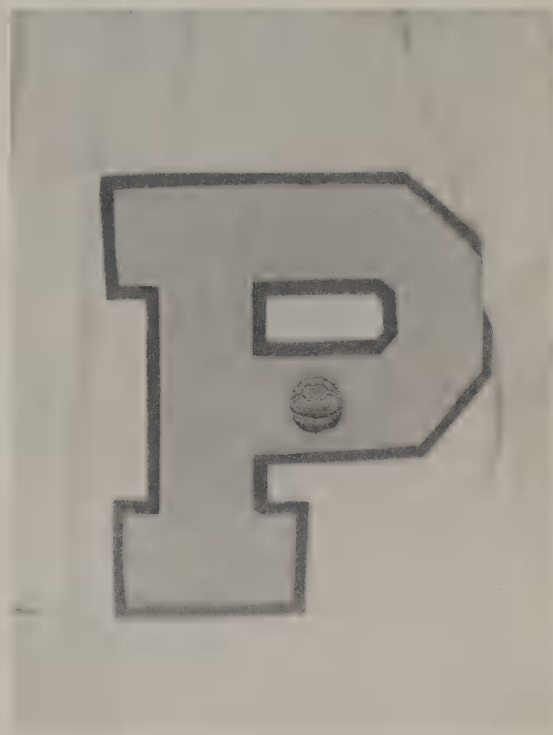

Heartbreak—crutches replace a uniform.
 Action in blue and gold!
 Youthful exuberance curbed by a new traffic light.
 Games, plays, club meetings, what will it be this week?
 Seemingly supernatural strength toward the finish line—
 Our town—the day the rains came.

A long awaited privilege—
driving to lunch.
Typing skills . . . speed and accuracy.
Even the fashion leaders couldn't sell these hats.
Worn with pride,
a coveted award.
Sophomore testing—deep concentration.

Orchestra members—pride of PBSHS and . . . first in county.

Decorations—nine hours to go and at last the Snowball.

Moment of decision . . . what color, what size?

Homecoming queen and escort.

Seniors climb to privileged haven in rafters of assembly.

A recent alumnae greeted by Student Council President;
A good score—judging from the pleased expressions.
University of Florida colors for a Florida State alumni . . .
Study in spectator reactions . . .
FHA hostesses entertain the faculty at Christmas tea.

Alice-through-the-Looking-Glass is theme of Senior tea.

Talent displayed in art class—with dreams of—someday Paris in the Spring.
Anticipating the future—will it be bridges or skyscrapers?

Wish I could have a locker all to myself!
The Pride of the Gold Coast from the Gem of the Gold Coast.

Not Everything at Pompano Is Traditional... Students Develop Their Own Fads And Pastimes.

Riding the nose . . .

Routines to follow . . .
 Science experiments to perform,
 language dialogues to learn,
 students are busy from the moment the bus arrives . . .
 until the last bell rings and they are released for home and homework.

Officers of Senior Class: Jimmy Wallace, president; Lorraine Verner, secretary; Steve Baldwin, treasurer; Jack Wheeler, vice-president.

Class Of '66

"I will study and get ready, and perhaps my chance will come." —Lincoln

You are a senior.

You're an adult, ready for an adult world.

You want to stay, but have to leave.

Uncertainty, excitement, melancholy and contemplation fill your thoughts.

Hard work and little sleep are characteristic of your time.

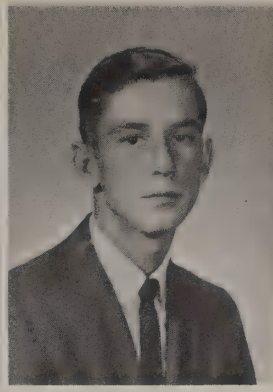

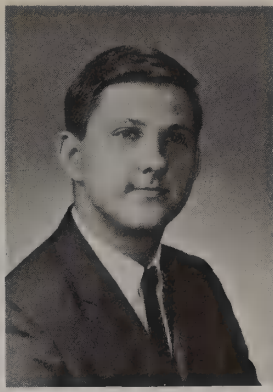

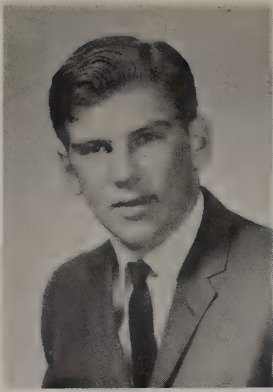

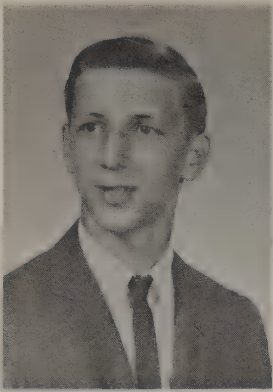

The prom, senior privileges, and senior work day are your rewards.

You are part of both past and present.

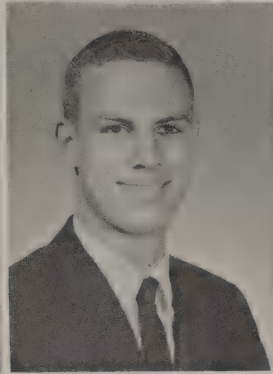

Your responsibility is to the future.

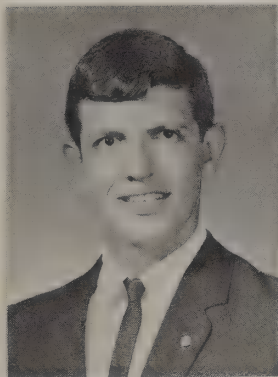

Senior Class sponsors: Mr. Paul Gebert and Mr. Raymond Marves devote many hours to helping the Senior Class.

Class officers: Nancy Hovey, treasurer; Rene Cleveland, secretary; Kay Weimer, vice-president; Jamie McFaden, president.

The Class Of '68

Sustaining pride in their accomplishments while shunning the Senior's scorn, the Sophomores abandon old patterns to try to conform to new traditions, and adjust to the new situations altered to fit their changing needs. They know that the school's tomorrow belongs to them.

Class sponsors: Mrs. Katherine Miller and Miss Betty Myrick.

Beanpicker staff discovers creating a yearbook is hard work. Yearbook editors express school life through words and pictures. Beanpicker members do more than lay out pictures and write stories. They spend many hours out of class selling advertising . . . getting subscriptions . . . meeting deadlines and taking pictures. Each year brings a new editor and a new staff with new ideas. The editor provides leadership by directing, instructing and criticising. The staff works hard for another Medalist Award.

SPORTS--a tradition of victory and sportsmanship

Traditions abound in athletics . . .
 Play the game . . . compete, excel.
 Prepare for ancient enemies; exult over Victory!—
 Rich reward for the hours of training, self-discipline, sacrifice.
 Not whether you win or loose . . .
 but how you play the game.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS: Margo Musselman, Mariha Fowlkes, Cinda Bartlett, Kristy Skuda, and Susan Beltz.

Cheerleaders Generate Pep And Enthusiasm

Raising the spirit at games,
Striving to keep enthusiasm high, these girls unify our individual shouts into group cheers.
They symbolize the pride we take in our school and our sports.

Progress is the tradition of our COMMUNITY

The old remains as a tribute to the past.
The new marks the path of progress.
Our city grows and changes.
We students mature,
taking our places
in a better community.

After high school
...what direction?

A solid educational background becomes increasingly important in getting and holding a good job and enjoying a better way of life.

A college diploma is an investment that will continue to pay dividends. College grads can expect to out-earn high school graduates by 70%.

Florida's universities, colleges and junior colleges are in a period of unprecedented growth, both academically and physically. The college of your choice can prove to be your best friend.

Whatever you decide to do...good luck, best wishes, and more power to you.

*A Message to the Graduating Class of 1966
From, "How to Entertain an Idea,"*

By Dr. Winfield Blair Sutphin

Senior Minister of The First Presbyterian Church

"Sorrowfully, the Thinker is an odd museum piece today. Our modern world is spawning a race of mental albinos. Dante, in his 'Divine Comedy' describes those dreary souls deep in the inferno who were damned because 'they were deficient in human color'." Tattle-tale gray is not on the escutcheon of saints and martyrs. Ignorance isn't bliss. It is an affliction: an astringent drying up the mind and shriveling its tissue. Mental exercise is good for you. A few intellectual nip-ups every morning are a greater guarantee of youthfulness than any medical elixir, and there is nothing like some mental acrobatics to tone up your life. For it matters not how deep the sincerity, how warm the heart, how wide the vision; if it isn't based on knowledge, it will melt with Summer, wilt with Fall, and there lie buried in the Winter earth."

Congratulations From the First Presbyterian Church (United) of Pompano Beach

Acknowledgements

One of the best traditions about the BEANPICKER is the opportunity to — cement old friendships and . . . make new ones. The staff of the BEANPICKER wishes to acknowledge the help of — Don Hambrick of PARAGON PRESS . . . our administrators and teachers . . . Otto Buschke, Photographer . . . Jane and Orville Parker, of Horizon Studios . . . and our advertisers.

The hectic rush for deadlines are over . . .
typewriters have stopped clicking . . .
the last bulky packages have been mailed.
For Seniors on the staff—a time of melancholy;
for Sophomores and Juniors — anticipation of the coming year.

And for me a time to remember—the wise counseling of my yearbook advisor, the kind understanding of my parents and—my staff.

An editor is nothing unless she has willing co-operation from her staff.

In this I feel I have been most fortunate . . .

They have rejoiced with me in the good times and sympathized in the bad times.

I have soared to the peaks of happiness and—sunk into the depths of despair.

Now it is over and already nostalgia begins.

My year as editor can never be repeated . . .

But I would not have missed it for the world.

—Nance Irwin, Editor
BEANPICKER Staff
